FROM OUR ART LEAGUE BOARD PRESIDENT

The groundhog was sadly mistaken this year, but Spring has arrived at last, and things are blooming at the Ocean City Center for the Arts.

With many gifts, great and small, our Annual Fund drive and "Have a heART" campaign were highly successful. This generosity will advance our mission, our outreach to youth, and our service to the community.

In April, we unveil our updated donor wall, and pay special tribute to our 65 Corporate Partners. We hope you will patronize them and, when you do, thank them for their support.

In May, we will welcome Brooke Rogers as our inaugural fellow in Contemporary Art and Community Engagement. This is the first time we have been able to offer such a fellowship, and we are really excited. A professor of art at Salisbury University, Brooke will serve in a general advisory role and will lead a community engagement initiative.

In June, we will award our annual scholarships to local students studying art at the college level. The need is great, and there is still time for you to make a contribution if you would like to help with this effort.

So much is going on, it makes my head spin! Attend our events, register for a class, become a volunteer, or just drop by and hang out. Our attentive staff is ready to help you get the most out of your Art League experience.

FROM OUR ART LEAGUE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

This Spring, the flowers are not the only thing that can bloom in Ocean City. If you are looking for personal growth, try one of our art classes or workshops.

The schedule is bursting with opportunities to unleash your inner artist. Browse through this catalogue, and you will find classes in a wide variety of mediums including: painting, pottery, glass, fiber, photography, printmaking, basket weaving and more.

There are classes for every level, from the total beginner who just wants to have fun, to the experienced painter looking to grow their skills by studying with nationally-known artists. There is truly something for everyone.

For those wishing to sample several classes at once, sign up for our "Art Weekend" on May 18-19, where you can try acrylic painting, pottery, glass, and mixed media all for one flat fee.

Everyone has the creative spirit in them, and there are classes to spark joy for both kids and adults.

Research has shown that engaging in art activities can improve your health by lowering blood pressure and reducing stress levels while raising self esteem and providing social connection. So, what are you waiting for? Give us a call at 410-524-9433 or sign up on our website - ArtLeagueOfOceanCity.org.

FROM BROOKE ROGERS, OUR NEW FELLOW FOR ART AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

I am honored to serve as the inaugural Fellow for Contemporary Art and Community Engagement at the Art League. I've lived in Ocean City my whole life, and my wife and I watched with excitement as the Art League grew over the years and blossomed into the local treasure it is today.

This fellowship will allow me to draw on my experience as an artist and educator. I have exhibited extensively in the region and taught in the Art Department at Salisbury University for over 20 years, serving as chair from 2009-15. While the scope of the new fellowship is still coming into focus, we do have some exciting plans already in the works. I look forward to getting to know many of you better in the coming months and share my understanding of contemporary art and my special interest in abstract painting and sculpture.

Water is a presence that draws us into a contemplative state. There is always a poetry to water, whether evidenced in its stillness and reflective qualities or in its turbulent and expressive state of motion. In this exhibition it is our intention to show water in its many moods and revelations.
