A Message from your President...

Those of us who bravely withstood the seemingly endless winter really appreciated all the winter activities at the Art League of Ocean City! Our February opening reception drew a crowd of nearly 300 people and many people took advantage of winter classes, the Brown Box Theater production, bowl making and special events held in partnership with several other area non-profits.

Thanks to all of you who participated in our bowl making project again this year and I hope that you will join us for the Empty Bowl soup dinner on March 21st. Proceeds from the donations for the bowls will be shared with Diakonia, our local non-profit caring for the homeless.

April's opening reception will be dedicated to our corporate sponsors who play a large role in our continued success. We are grateful for each monetary gift as well as in-kind gifts of labor, food, discounts and expertise. We thank you one and all for your continued support and ask our members to patronize our Corporate Partners listed on the last page of our newsletter and on our website. We have recently upgraded our Corporate Partner levels and associated benefits which include sponsorships of several of our special activities. If you are interested in becoming a partner or increasing your level of giving, you can find this information on the ALOC's website as well as in the gallery. Be sure to take a look at our spring schedule featuring workshops, classes other events and sign up for some volunteer time!

Yours in Service,
Marian Bickerstaff, President

College Scholarships

The Art League of Ocean City is offering support to local young artists by awarding up to five $1,000 scholarships to students who pursue a college degree in visual arts. The Art League invites students who are residents of Worcester County to apply by April 8, 2015. The application is available online at www.artleagueofoceancity.org>scholarships. Call 410-524-9433 for more information.

Thank you to all who participated in the "Name Your Newsletter" contest. We received a number of excellent suggestions and we're pleased to announce the winner has been chosen. Patti Selig suggested "Art Matters" for the new newsletter name, and we agree, it encompasses exactly the message we would like to convey about art in our community and beyond. In addition to bragging rights, Patti wins $25.00 toward a class given at the Art Center. Congratulations, Patti! We'll be working to develop an appropriate title format to go along with our masthead. Look for it in the future. ~ Gail Philippi, Newsletter Editor

Our Team Has Grown!

To accommodate our extended hours and growing schedule of classes and events, the Board of Directors of the ALOC included additional staffing in our 2015 budget. We are pleased to report that after a widespread search for candidates, the position of Education Coordinator has been filled by Katrin Huber. As an artist and experienced project manager, Katrin brings a wide range of skills to the position, and you can expect some new and exciting programs in the future. We are also pleased to welcome Elaine Bean to the position of Publicity and Marketing Coordinator. Elaine is an experienced reporter, photographer, and graphic designer. Our staff is here to answer your questions and listen to your input. Below are the email contacts and titles of our team members:

Painting Classes

"Local Color" Watercolors with Geri

Wednesdays, March 4, 25, April 1, 29, 10 am — 1 pm, Instructor: Gerilyn Gaskill. Watch watercolor demonstrations and try your hand as you paint along with Geri! Have fun while you learn to capture the "local color" in watercolors. Artists of all levels are welcome. Bring what supplies you have and we will supplement. Cost: $20 for members, $25 for non members per session.

Beginners and Beyond, Watercolors with Barbara Doyle Schmid

Mon.—Wed., Mar. 9 —11, Apr. 13 —15, 9 am — 2 pm. Popular monthly watercolor class for artists of all levels! Must register directly with instructor. Call (410) 208-0219 to register. Cost: $75 for members, $90 for non members.

Brushes and Bubbly

Wednesdays, Mar. 11, Apr. 8, 6:30 pm—9:00 pm. Instructor: Kathi Stevens. Bring your friends, a snack, and an adult beverage and enjoy a fun, stress-free evening of painting. We supply the canvases, paints, brushes, cups, music, and an artist to guide you. Complete a work of art in one night. No prior experience necessary! Cost: $36 members, $40 non-members.

Watercolor Workshop with Willie Crockett

Tuesday, March 17, 10:00 am —Wednesday, March 18, 4:00 pm. Willie Crockett's workshops are always popular and fill up quickly. His paintings are recognized as among the most honest portrayals of the Chesapeake's drama and beauty. Best known for his wildlife art, Willie transmits to his paintings an ever fresh view of the Eastern Shore landscape, the wild-fowl and the marsh. Cost: $ 120 members, $144 non-members.

"Landscapes and Bayscapes" Sky, Water, and Reflections with Keith Whitelock

Monday, April 20, 10:00 am—Wednesday, April 22, 4:00 pm. Keith Whitelock's paintings feature Chesapeake Bay-themed, realistic subjects rendered in transparent watercolor. He will share his thoughts and methods of dealing with these and all other elements in a typical painting. He does several demos and he discusses all of his materials and favorite tools (including color selection, mixing, and brush use.) Attendees will paint their own subjects or a version of the demo(s) with individual attention, demonstrations, and class discussions. Participants should have experience in basic drawing and some watercolor experience. Instruction is tailored to each individual's experience level to best keep the learning fun. Cost: $150 members, $180 non-members.

Pottery Classes

WHO'S WHO IN THE ART LEAGUE— Jan Perdue

Who's Who in the Art League ~

Jan Perdue was born and raised in North Carolina. She married Jim Perdue, settled in Salisbury to raise their children, and became active in organizations like the Salisbury School, the Community Foundation of the Eastern Shore and the United Way. About five years ago, she and Jim built a home overlooking the water and marshes of the Assateague Bay. Desiring to become involved in the local community and willing to volunteer her time and efforts, Jan hosted the cocktail party for the homeowners of the Art League's 2013 Home Tour. Jan says, "I was so impressed with the Art League's organizers and the people I met that I became a member." She now serves on the Board of Directors.

Passionate about educating children in the arts, Jan has been a docent for the Seattle Art Museum and the Walters Museum in Baltimore, conducting programs for children, from elementary school through high school. Now, she is part of the Walters Outreach program here on the Shore. Using objects from the Museum and sometimes power-point, Jan teaches about how art affects our lives. "Learning about painting and sculpture should be fun. I get excited about it and I hope to bring that excitement to the kids."

Jan enjoys painting, cycling, traveling, and taking art classes. The Perdues have a daughter in Connecticut with two boys, a son in California who is developing a pet food line for Perdue Farms, and a son who works in the agribusiness section of the company.

Art Matters

Our newsletter has a catchy new name — "Art Matters," thanks to Patti Selig, who was the winner of the "Name the Newsletter" contest. The name was selected by our publicity committee from a list of imaginative titles that were sent in by our members, and we were delighted to see so much creative thinking to determine the name. In the end, the name "Art Matters" was clever and meaningful, at the same time. While I am confident that all of you reading this newsletter know why art matters to you, below are a few reasons that art matters to our society and community .

- Arts spark creativity and innovation
- Arts improve academic performance
- Arts strengthen the economy
- Arts drive tourism
- Arts have social impact
- Arts improve healthcare

Now, we would like to challenge you our readers again, to come up with some responses to why art matters to you. Please email them to me at rthaler@artleagueofoceancity.org with the words art matters in the subject line. I look forward to hearing from all of you as to why art matters in your life. We will include them in the next newsletter. Thank you for all your participation.

Artfully yours,
Rina Thaler
Executive Director

Shirley Hall Youth Art Exhibit

Volunteer Update and Opportunities

February has been an exciting month at the Ocean City Center for the Arts and we could not have made it such a success without the help of our volunteers. From hanging one of our largest exhibits, to the First Friday reception volunteers, the pottery assistants helping with the last of our empty bowl-making sessions, and the front desk docents; none would have been possible without the help of: Don Lehman, Don Whitcomb, Nancy Fortney, Lisi Ruczynski, Hilda Plisko, Kim Morgan, Sally-Anne Chappel, Bebe Antonini, Margaret Bradach, May Tignall, Sara Coffin, Donna Becker, Deborah Bryant, Candy Giard, Tina, Walas, and Ann Augustine. Thank you, also, to all volunteer committee members.

On Saturday, March 21st from 5-8 PM the Art League of Ocean City will partner with Diakonia for the second annual Empty Bowl Dinner. Volunteer opportunities on the night of the event will include: help with set-up, greeting visitors, assist guests in claiming their pre-purchased bowl, selling raffle tickets, ladling soup, bartending (soft drinks and wine), serving coffee and desserts, and clearing tables. The event will be split into two volunteer shifts (first from 4:30-6:30pm and the second from 6:15-8:30pm). If anyone is interested in volunteering on the night of the dinner, please contact Mallory Hanback by email at Mallory@artleagueofoceancity.org or phone (410)-524-9433.

We are excited to announce the launch of an exclusive monthly update for our volunteers! We will provide updates on our current exhibits, upcoming events and volunteer opportunities. If you did not receive the first update and would like to, please email Mallory@artleagueofoceancity.org to be added to the distribution list.
