A Message from your President...

As another year has come to a close and we reflect on all the activity that has taken place at the Ocean City Center for the Arts, we are deeply gratified that the ALOC has become so important to an increasing number of people. I again want to take this opportunity to say "THANK YOU" to those of you who have and continue to generously support the ALOC financially as well as with your volunteer time and talents.

On December 11th, we held our annual meeting of members with a delicious luncheon at A Touch of Italy. I am happy to announce that Jan Perdue and Rafael (Rafo) Correa were added to our Board of Directors. We welcome them and appreciate their willingness to serve the ALOC!

We also recognized long term board members, Barbara Melone and Ann Terrell, for their many years of service and thanked retiring board member, Michelle Fager. Executive Director, Rina Thaler, recognized our volunteers who logged in 50 or more hours during 2014. She also presented a Long-Term Service Award to past board member and artist, Barbara Hager, and acknowledged the passing of several of our members.

As we turn our attention to the New Year, I am pleased to announce the formation of a new board Resource Development Committee that will be co-chaired by Emily Schwab and Jamie Albright. The committee will be working on a long-term plan to ensure the sustainability of the ALOC as we are not only interested in the present but also preserving the ALOC for future generations!

As you renew your memberships, please also consider how you can use your talents to be an active volunteer and become more involved. Join in the mission of the ALOC to help promote the arts in the Ocean City area!

Yours in Service,
Marian Bickerstaff, President

WHO'S WHO IN THE ART LEAGUE— Rafo Correa

Who's Who in the Art League ~

One of our newest members to join the board of the Art League is a young man named Rafael Correa, "Rafo." He was born in the US, but his parents came from Chile, where he lived for several years in his early childhood. The family eventually settled in Salisbury, Maryland, where Rafo went on to graduate from Salisbury University with a B.S. and an M.B.A. He is the Chief Financial Officer of Blue Water Development Corporation, the parent company of Burbage Properties of Berlin. He and his wife, Lindsey, live in Glen Riddle; they have a three-year-old son, Sebastian, and are expecting a daughter this month.

The Personal Wellness Center in Salisbury is another of Rafo's interests. This health facility, founded with his mother, Veronica, offers a holistic approach to pain management and life's challenges.

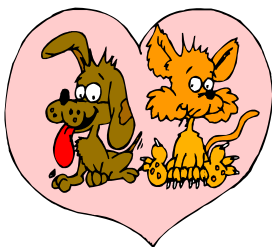

Rafo enjoys public speaking, especially motivational speaking, something he did as an operations manager for a government contractor. He serves on the Salisbury University Foundation Board, the Perdue School of Business Career Advisory Board, and the Community Foundation Audit Committee. Although he says he is still in the learning stage at the Art League, Rafo believes "We (the Art League) have an excellent story; our job is to tell it and take the ALOC mission beyond the walls of our building."

~ Stasia Heubeck

We Welcome New Studio Artists

David Simpson—Studio D

Jan Bain and Gail Zinar — Studio B (Feb.)

February's exhibit will be "Animals in Art", all media, 2D and 3D, with a portion of all sales benefitting the Worcester County Humane Society.

Throughout the month, the Art Center will be featuring several animal-themed classes, such as "Brushes and Bubbly" and "Sip and Ceramics" — both of which will be fundraisers for the WCHS. Lynne Lockhart will also be teaching a workshop called "The Dog and Cat in Art." In addition, pet portraits will be available.

Big Plans for 2015...

Thank you to all of our members for your continued support of the Art League of Ocean City. Your participation and donations have helped us to become the premier arts organization of the area, building community through art.

How can art build community? A look at the upcoming 2015 calendar demonstrates how integral art is to society. The Art League has forged valuable community partnerships with groups like the Ocean City Branch of the Worcester County Library, the Humane Society, Brown Box Theatre Project, and Diakonia. During The months of January and February, we highlight these organizations through artistic expression.

In January we will be exploring the connection between the literary and visual arts with our exhibit "Shared Visions." The exhibit, which pairs 30 writers with 25 artists, opens at our First Friday Reception on Friday, January 2, 2015, from 5-7 PM. Join us as we celebrate the new year and meet the artists and writers who have shared their visions.

On January 20 from 6-8 PM, we will present a "An evening of Reflection," where the writers of the Ocean City Library will read the works while projecting the images of the paintings that coordinate with them. Complimentary refreshments will be served and everyone is invited to attend.

In February, we will focus on animals in art, and help to raise funds for, and awareness of, the Worcester County Humane Society. Events for the month include an exhibit of animals in art, a workshop with Lynne Lockhart on painting dogs and cats, pet portraits, and special animal themed "Brushes and Bubbly" and "Sip and Ceramics" nights.

Mark your calendars for February 13-17, 2015, when Brown Box Theatre returns with live performances in the gallery of the play "Echoes." These outstanding productions bring the performing arts in for an intimate night of theater and art.

During January and February we will also be asking volunteers to make bowls in our pottery studio for our 2nd Annual Empty Bowl Project, which will culminate in a soup dinner on March 21, 2015. This project is a partnership between Diakonia, which provides transitional housing for the homeless, and the Art League. The project is sponsored this year by First Shore Federal Savings and Loan, and the funds raised will go to support the programs of both organizations.

We hope you join us for all of these exciting events. Your interest in the Art League is truly the reason for our success, and with your continued support we will be able to reach even further with the offerings we can bring.

I hope to see you all here at the Ocean City Center for the Arts this winter!

Artistically Yours,
Rina Thaler
Executive Director
