THE NEWSLETTER OF THE ART LEAGUE OF OCEAN CITY

Sep—Oct 2015

A Message from your President...

Once again summer has raced by, crazy busy as usual in Ocean City! Along with all the usual summer activities, many of you found time for frequent visits at the Ocean City Center for the Arts and we continue to thank you. Many of our children were treated to 4 weeks of summer art camp held in partnership with the OC Recreation and Parks. Many thanks to our instructors, especially Kathi Stevens, for your incredible creativity!!

Our annual "Artists Paint OC" plein air event attracted over 50 artists from the east coast region and as far away as Indiana! Thanks to chairperson Emily Schwab, and her committee, for providing welcoming hospitality and support for this event that also drew a crowd to Saturday's Wet Paint Exhibit and Sale.

Activity doesn't diminish as the new fall schedule of classes and events will attest. I hope that you will put the annual Sand Castle Home tour on September 24 and 25th, high on your list of priorities!! Also, plan to attend the kick-off "Cirque des Artes" black and gold cocktail party at the Gateway Grand in honor of the homeowners on September 16th. In the words of party chairperson, Jamie Albright, "this party promises to be over the top!" The home tour and party continue to be the ALOC's main fundraiser and we greatly appreciate the support from the community – the homeowners, the hundreds of volunteers, the businesses who support the events and the public who participate!!

Yours in service,
Marian Bickerstaff, Board President
410-208-2508

Thank You to Our Volunteers!

We are currently looking for docents for the Home Tour. Volunteer to be a docent for a half day and receive $10 off your home tour ticket! Please consider volunteering; call Mallory or email her at Mallory@artleagueofoceancity.org to sign up.

Thank You for Voting for Us!

The Ocean City Center for the Arts has been voted "Best Art Gallery in Worcester County" by Coastal Style Magazine and "Best Art Gallery" Berlin to Ocean City by Metropolitan Magazine.

Black and Gold Party

The event of the year is just around the corner! On Wednesday, September 16, the ALOC will be holding their Black and Gold party, with a theme of Cirque des Artes, featuring performances by "airplay entertainment" from Philadelphia. These extraordinary centerpieces (pictured at right) will be available for purchase with the proceeds going to benefit ALOC programs. See page 3.

This is a fun, energetic workshop with lots of experimental technique. Bring a lunch and "What If" attitude!

Who's Who in the Art League ~

John Sisson

John Sisson, one of our newest members, made the move to Ocean City about a year ago. One day, while riding his bike, he saw the Center for the Arts and decided to visit. He was greeted by the very welcoming staff, was impressed with the exhibits and activities, and agreed to volunteer for the Empty Bowl Project. Now, he has become very involved with our fund raising.

Born on the Army base of Fortress Monroe, VA, John became a teacher in the Prince George's Public Schools. He began with elementary school, and later taught Japanese and Spanish to middle and high school students. Receiving several grants to promote the Arts and Humanities, John was able to take his students to Europe and Japan for study tours, bicycle trips and visits to folklore festivals. Upon retirement, after 36 years, he has become active in the Maryland Retired School Personnel Association, assisting with Public Relations and Finance. He plays the tuba and enjoys traveling, most recently to Norway for hiking and horseback riding.

Since he believes the key to a successful organization is long term as well as short term fund raising, John has been working with the Legacy Program and the Paver Project at the Art League. Donating a brick paver for the front courtyard is one form of leaving a legacy. Whether it honors one's family or a well-known person, the paver can make a statement, even a whimsical one.

Summer at the Ocean City Center for the Arts was filled with a diverse group of engaging programs. From the 158 children who enthusiastically attended art camp, to the 52 artists who came from around the country to participate in our "Artists Paint OC" plein air event, and the spectacular exhibits including: Patrick Henry, Evan Fitzgerald and our Beverly Bassford juried show, it has been so rewarding to be part of such a vibrant cultural community.

For fall, you will find a dazzling array of options to educate, inspire and entertain you. Pick up a copy of our fall schedule and you will find some familiar favorite classes in painting, drawing, pottery and glass, and some new offerings in photography, fiber and even an acting workshop. Thanks to those who responded to our education survey this spring, we have expanded our offerings to meet your requests. Note some of the new free programs, like the drop in family art Saturdays, the exploring music workshop and the art therapy workshop. These programs have been made possible through grants and partnerships with the PNC foundation, Ganett foundation, the Jesse Klump memorial fund and the Worcester County Health department and we are grateful for their support.

None of these wonderful activities would be possible without the support of you, our dedicated membership of over 850 individuals and businesses. As the Art League reaches new heights, it is so important to remember that we are all in this together, and that the arts can only thrive with the support of those who understand its value.

I hope to see you soon at the art center.
