Winter 2018

ART LEAGUE OF OCEAN CITY
CENTER FOR THE ARTS - 94TH ST.

NEWS, CLASSES & EVENTS

OC Film Festival returns March 9 - 11

The Ocean City Film Festival was founded in January, 2017. Hosted by the Art League of Ocean City, this festival is a regional affair that allows both community engagement and networking for artists.

Our festival stands to unite artists with their audiences and allow for an intimate and unique festival experience that can only be found in Ocean City. Our second year will feature more than 100 films from local filmmakers and from the other side of the planet.

Categories include feature films, not short/not feature length films, plus shorts focusing on youth, animation, horror, documentary, music videos, humor, drama, social commentary and experimental, as well as music videos.

TICKET PRICES

All access pass, $50. Day pass, $10. Individual screenings, $5. Full schedule and locations in OC coming soon at ocmddfilmfestival.com

Free Family Art Days bring kids & parents together

"Take Flight and Rock On" is the theme for Free Family Art Days, sponsored by Walmart and the Community Foundation of the Eastern Shore. Come together as a family to explore nature, our Delmarva environment, and the arts, and make a piece of art to take home and enjoy together.

All materials are included.

Brown Box presents live theater ~ "The Hotel Nepenthe"

SATURDAY-SUNDAY, MARCH 17-18, 7:30 P.M.

Through the twisting, winding corridors of the mind lies a world both chillingly relatable and thoroughly alien. As the settings and characters shift and morph through a series of delightfully turbulent vignettes, we are drawn down a rabbit hole of the familiar and the bizarre, held captive by endless parallel universes that seep from the stage to consume our very being. Not for the faint of heart, The Hotel Nepenthe is a perilously absurd romp through the mysteries of human nature, the ripples of fairy wings and alternate realities, and the search for meaning from within the abyss.

Space is limited with reservations suggested. Tickets are $20 at brownboxtheatre.org or call 410-524-9433.

Upcoming events at the Arts Center

*A message from our Board President,
Marian Bickerstaff*

As we gather with family and friends during this holiday season, we again pause to thank you for your continued support. We especially thank our loyal volunteers and patrons who have again supported our largest fundraisers – The 13th Annual Sand Castle Home Tour and Cocktail Party. A lot of people worked tirelessly to make these events happen and your efforts do not go unnoticed!

I want to thank Emmy Challenger for her many years of service on our Board of Directors. She will be missed! We also welcome our three new board members for 2018 – Ruth Waters, Sandy Gillis and Ryan Wilde – who have already displayed enthusiasm for board involvement.

The theme of our recently released annual report is “Art Unites Us.” Your continued support and participation in our programs and events demonstrates how art can touch and unite people of all ages and walks of life. In the spirit of unity, I invite you to give thoughtful consideration about your contribution to our Annual Fund drive. We thank you in advance for your continued support and generosity! By working together and sharing our time and talents, we can do great things!

A message from our Executive Director, Rina Thaler

It is hard to believe that 2018 will be the Art League of Ocean City's 5th year at the beautiful Ocean City Center for the Arts. In that time we have served over 80,000 visitors who have enjoyed the many exhibits, classes, and events. Our membership has grown to almost 1,000 artists and art lovers, finding connection to others who share their interests.

This January, we welcome the 4th annual “Shared Visions” collaboration, where member artists interpret the writings of the Ocean City Library Writer's Group. February brings the Eastern Shore interpret legend Willie Crockett here for a watercolor workshop and an evening of poetry and story.

The 2nd annual Ocean City Film Festival returns March 9-11, featuring over 100 original films in a variety of genres at venues throughout the resort. Then on March 17-18, we welcome back Brown Box Theatre Project for a thrilling live performance of “Hotel Nepenthe” - not to be missed.

In this newsletter, you will find dozens of classes for kids and adults, geared to all levels, allowing absolute beginners and experienced artists the chance to express themselves creatively.

Not only have we expanded programming in the building, our outreach efforts with Worcester County Schools and collaborations with other nonprofits have also grown over the past five years. This winter our outreach efforts will focus on Buckingham Elementary School, with after school art enrichment. The Shirley Hall Youth Art Show will feature the artwork of Worcester County middle and high school students in a weekend exhibit, which begins on March 2.

None of this would be possible without the support of our generous donors, dedicated board, enthusiastic volunteers, and hard working staff. Thank you all for making the Art League of Ocean City the leading arts provider in the region. Together we can continue to impact the community through art!
