SUMMER is upon us, and the Ocean City Center for the Arts is bursting with creative energy! Programing continues to be amazing, and our staff diligently strives to create a warm, inviting atmosphere to welcome our members and visitors alike.

I am energized by the renewed commitment of so many: our dedicated board of directors who recently spent valuable time on long-term strategic planning, the continued support of corporate partners, the renewals of individual memberships, and the positive support and feedback from our community.

After unveiling our Legacy pARTner Society in April, I am delighted and honored to report that we now have nine people who have pledged their support through planned estate giving. We invite you to consider adding your name to this growing list of members who desire the sustainability of the Art Center for decades to come!

Along with the warmer weather, we look forward to our major annual activities – the plein air event “Artists Paint OC” coming in August and our 14th Sand Castle Home Tour fundraiser in September where we depend on faithful volunteers to make the event a success. Thank you in advance for your continued participation and support of these activities!

As we continue to be inspired by all these creative endeavors, we were also saddened by the untimely passing of Don Schmid, the husband of our beloved water-color instructor, Barbara Doyle Schmid. Thanks to the many who made a donation to the Art League in his memory. Please continue to keep Barbara in your thoughts and prayers.

Marian Bickerstaff
Art League Board President

HAVE A HEART FOR ART? VOLUNTEER!

Love art? Want to get more involved, make new friends, and enjoy new experiences? We have many opportunities for volunteering if you have a heart for art. Be a docent at a private home during the Sand Castle Home Tour. Enjoy a day in the park at Art X. Serve food and beverages at events and First Friday openings. Help the children have fun at summer camp. Staff the front desk at the Arts Center. Please contact our volunteer coordinator, Debbi Dean-Colley, at 410-524-9433 or debbi@artleagueofoceancity.org.

BECAUSE YOU matter to us, “Art Matters” has changed to a calendar-based publication to make it easier to find all of the exciting summer exhibits, classes, and events we have going on at the Ocean City Center for the Arts.

Art classes are color coded by date, and short descriptions and prices are included on subsequent pages. For expanded information on every class plus supply lists and lots more information about the Art League of Ocean City and our programs and events, please visit our website - artleagueofoceancity.org.

You can even become a member, or make a tax deductible donation to the Art League directly on our website.

In addition to our annual Summer Art Adventure Camp, Artists Paint OC plein air event, the Sand Castle Home tour, and the cocktail pARTy of the Year, we are partnering with the Town of Ocean City to bring a new outdoor art and music festival to Northside Park.

Formerly Arts Alive and now called ARTX, the expanded festival on August 25 and 26 is not to be missed. Mark your calendars for a weekend of fun as you experience fine art and artisan exhibits, live music, original film, art workshops, and activities for kids and adults. There will be a beer and wine garden and plenty of food and fun, all offered on 125th Street at OC’s bayside park. Hours are noon to 8 p.m. on Saturday and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Sunday. Stop by the Art League’s tent and say “hi” as you enjoy an “xplosion of art.”

I would like to thank you for being a part of the Art League of Ocean City. So many of you recently reached out to local government officials to express just how much you enjoy and appreciate the value we bring to the community, and your support means so much to us.

Wishing you art and joy in your life,

Rina Thaler
Art League Executive Director

August

ART X = A FREE XPLOSION OF ART IN OC!
 A free all-new event at Northside Park featuring fine artist exhibits, musical performances, unique food/wine/drinks, creative cinema showings, on-site workshops and family activities. Look for Art League classes X1, X2 and X3 at the park!

AFTER THE HIGHLY successful exhibition of “The Divine Feminine” last May at the Arts Center, Deborah Rolig and her sister, Dee Gray, expand the exhibition this year, focusing on the female experience from childhood to womanhood. A portion of the proceeds will benefit the Rebecca & Leighton Moore Adolescent Behavioral Health Unit at PRMC.

The show will feature a diverse cross section of female artists incorporating all facets of visual and conceptual art forms, promising to be thought provoking and visually stimulating.

Once again, Kathleen Martens will unite Delaware and Maryland women writers, who will read excerpts of prose and poetry from their new book entitled “She Writes: Visions and Voices of Seaside Scribes.” Also included are special selections by young, emerging authors.

THE SHERo awards on Sept. 14 will honor women who have shown courage, made outstanding achievements to our community, and embody noble qualities.

Do you know a SHERo? Nominees must live on Delmarva. Please mail nominations to PO Box 3503, Ocean City MD 21843 by August 14, 2018. Winners will be announced at Awards night. Complete info on our website.
