ART LEAGUE OF OCEAN CITY
CENTER FOR THE ARTS

FROM OUR ART LEAGUE
PRESIDENT

It takes more than a village

It's more than fun. Our magnificent Ocean City Center for the Arts is a source of community pride. We have watched Ocean City become a cultural magnet for the entire Lower Eastern Shore. We have enhanced the reputation of Ocean City as a family resort and a worthwhile and recommended destination throughout the year.

It takes many hands to make this happen – members, artists, teachers, staff, volunteers – and it's a heart-warming experience to be involved. It takes money as well, and we are very grateful for our generous members, donors, and corporate partners.

In this season of giving, we hope you will remember the Art League of Ocean City. If you are not yet a member, please join us at a level that is appropriate for you. If you are already a member, please respond generously to our Annual Fund appeal. You can donate by phone at 410-524-9433 or online at artleagueofoceancity.org/donate.

If "Giving Tuesday" is a tradition in your family, you can include the Art League in your gift to area nonprofits at shoregivesmore.org.

Every donation helps, and you will have the satisfaction of being an important part of this great nonprofit organization.

Lecture: The Fire at Notre Dame: Past & Future

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 6 - 8 PM

As a fundraiser for the Art League and in celebration of Ocean City's History Week, architectural historian Robert M. Craig will present an illustrated lecture on the fire at Notre Dame Cathedral, discussing the significant features of the building over time including past mutilations and desecrations. A highlight will be a review of proposals by 21st century architects to rebuild/redesign the roof and spire after the April fire.

Dr. Craig is Professor Emeritus of Georgia Tech's architecture school where he taught from 1973-2011. He has lectured around the world and authored nine books, including two illustrated histories of the Ocean City Beach Patrol.

Admission $10 to benefit the Art League.

FREE! Harbor Day at the Docks Heritage Festival

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, 10 AM - 5 PM

Join us as we celebrate the rich local history, culture, and heritage of the harbor as well as the sport of commercial fishing industries. Highlights of the day will include seafood cooking demonstrations and tastings, fish cleaning demonstrations, local fisherman displays, educational exhibits, live music, nautical artisans, local food, and fun kids' activities!

This festival is a wonderful collaboration between Worcester County Recreation & Parks, Ocean City Chamber of Commerce, OC Hotel-Motel-Restaurant Assn., Worcester County Tourism, the Art League of Ocean City and local businesses.

FROM OUR ART LEAGUE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Summer is over. Your company has gone home. Time to head to the Art League for events, classes, and exhibits!

Mark your calendars for Sunday, Oct. 6 at 6 pm, when the Art League brings the international touring production of Catapult to the Ocean City Performing Arts Center. If you enjoyed Artrageous last year, you will love Catapult! Combining storytelling with the magic of shadow imagery and first featured on "America's Got Talent," Catapult has been wowing audiences worldwide. Tickets are $20-$30, and can be purchased on ticketmaster.com or at the Convention Center box office. There is something for everyone in this performance, so bring the whole family.

We are proud to host 1,200 students for a special school matinee of Catapult on Oct. 7. Thank you to the Humphreys Foundation, T.E.A.M. Productions, Town of Ocean City, and Berlin/Ocean City Optimists for funding the school matinee, and Jamie Albright and Ruth Waters for their help coordinating.

October also brings a month-long celebration of womanhood with our gallery wide "Rise" exhibit. Curated by artist Deborah Rolig, the galleries will be filled with multimedia artwork by female artists designed to empower. Nominate someone you know who has overcome adversity for a "SHEro" award, attend a free lecture or event, and join us for readings from the book "Seaside Scribes: Women Writing, Women Rising," curated by Kathleen Martens especially for this exhibition.

Thank you for keeping the Art League in your hearts. As a non-profit organization, it takes people like you who understand the value the arts to sustain us and our activities. In this season of giving, we truly appreciate anything you can give to keep the arts alive in Ocean City.

Rina Thaler
Art League Executive Director
