THE ART LEAGUE OF OCEAN CITY

CENTER FOR THE ARTS

FROM OUR ART LEAGUE
PRESIDENT

Not the off-season

It may be the off-season somewhere, but not at the Ocean City Center for the Arts.

With a full schedule of classes, exhibits and special events, there is plenty going on to get your creative juices flowing and keep you out of the winter doldrums.

Check it out. Accomplished artists will find a number of sessions to assist in refining and expanding their skills. Beginners like me can dabble in ceramics and other classes that feature patient instructors, helpful volunteers, and the occasional serving of spirits. Kids classes are the perfect antidote for mid-winter cabin fever.

At the forefront is our Fourth Annual Ocean City Film Festival, cited by Filmfreeway as being among the top 100 best-reviewed film festivals worldwide! With more than 100 independently-produced films shown in venues all over town, there will be something for everyone to enjoy.

Last year's grand champion of the Film Festival, The Biggest Little Farm, produced by two Stephen Decatur High School grads, has gone on to gain international fame.

So join us for a huge weekend of fun from March 5 to 8, with an exciting closing ceremony on Sunday afternoon.

FROM OUR ART LEAGUE
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Art is all around us

I was recently asked to take the 30-day no-art challenge, and I learned that is virtually impossible to live without art.

Think about it. No paintings on the walls of your home or in public spaces. No music to listen to after a long day at work. No films, theater, design, poetry, dance, or even architecture.

Everywhere we go, we are surrounded by the arts. The stained glass windows in your church or synagogue, the fashions we wear, even the icons on the apps of your smartphone are all forms of art and design. We are surrounded by the creative spirit of human-kind that nurtures our mind, body, and soul — art.

Don't try living without it.

Join us this winter as we explore the many facets of art with our Shared Visions exhibit and readings in January, classes and events in February, and our 4th Annual Ocean City Film Festival in March.

I would like to thank everyone who donated to our annual year end campaign. Every gift regardless of the size helps us to fulfill our mission of bringing the creative arts to the community. We appreciate all of our volunteers, members and donors who are all part of our art ecosystem.

Remember: The earth without art is just "eh."

January

Venice was much the same, albeit more crowded and dirtier than we remembered; however, we were not. The young adventurers who easily scrambled up the tiny bridges over the many canals, and explored knowing that we could always find our way back had morphed into timid old age pensioners with mobility, eyesight, and hearing issues ... We'd learned a hard lesson: La Serenissima forty years later is still enchanting, but it is a city that we are now too old to explore.
Arrivederci Venezia.

FROM OUR ART LEAGUE
VOLUNTEER COORDINATOR

Opportunities to give back abound!

The Art League of Ocean City welcomes Aubrey as our new Volunteer Coordinator. This is an important position at the Art League, as volunteers provide us with the staff we need to run many of our signature events — the Sand Castle Home Tour, The Annual Ocean City Film Festival, The Artists Paint OC plein air event, our monthly First Fridays, and many more, plus help us with office work.

My name is Aubrey Sizemore, and I'm a proud Ocean City native. I previously worked at my family's hotel in Ocean City, The Cayman Suites, and am the mom of two active boys. In my free time, I enjoy camping, going to the beach, crafting, and watching my sons play sports.

I'm excited to be a new member of the Art League of Ocean City staff and to be working with other staff members and volunteers. I cannot wait to meet everyone.

Please feel free to email me at Aubrey@artleagueofoceancity.org to introduce yourself or to inquire about volunteering for any of our upcoming events like the Film Festival!

FILM FESTIVAL DIRECTOR

Four days of creative celebration

In January of 2017 I was very fortunate to establish a relationship with the Art League of Ocean City and begin planning the Ocean City Film Festival. Over the past few years, we have seen unprecedented growth in our festival operation.

When we began the Film Festival, my first goal was to create an outlet for local filmmakers to share their work. Film festivals are few and far between in our region, and in establishing ourselves as Ocean City's official Film Festival, we have awoken a vast collective of local talent that did not previously have access to a movie screen or networking opportunities in town.

New festival seasons bring new films, new stories, and new artists. 2019 was a landmark year for us as we were greeted with record audience numbers. Following the 2019 festival, we were also ranked in the Top 100 Best-Reviewed Festivals on Filmfreeway.

March 5th through 8th of 2020 will be four days of creative celebration. In our fourth season we are featuring panels with industry professionals, 12 different categories of films, bigger parties, new venues, and even more to be announced!

I hope to see you at the fourth annual Ocean City Film Festival. It's the town's hippest event. Get your tickets at: ocmdfilmfestival.com
