FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ART LEAGUE CONTINUES FREE LUNCH & LEARN SERIES
VIA ZOOM WITH SPEAKER JOHN MOSHER ON APRIL 30

OCEAN CITY, MD — April 22, 2020 – The Art League of Ocean City continues its free monthly Lunch & Learn series now online on Thursday, April 30 from noon – 1:30 pm. The speaker for April will be John Mosher, the Art League's Orem & Harriet Robinson Fellow for Contemporary Art & Community Engagement.

The Lunch & Learn series fulfills the Art League's mission to bring the creative arts to the community. Participants do not need to be artists or have any art experience to attend. The Lunch & Learn series is moving online while the doors of the Ocean City Center for the Arts are temporarily closed.

Originally from Michigan, Mosher moved to the Eastern Shore in 2011 and currently teaches studio art and web design at Salisbury University. His own art practice is varied, from web design to digital art to more traditional drawing/painting to collage.

“It’s all about the approach; where the ideas are coming from,” Mosher said. “I am inspired by improvisation— abstract expressionists, jazz music, found sounds, and also the strong light and composition of more traditional painters.”

The Lunch & Learn event is free, but space is limited to Zoom's maximum capacity of 100, and reservations are required at <https://artleagueofoceancity.org/event/lunch-learn-with-john-mosher/>

All registered participants will receive an invite by email the day before the event and should click the link in the invite email to join a few minutes before the event starts. If an invite email is not received the day before the event, they should email either katrin@artleagueofoceancity.org or megan@artleagueofoceancity.org.

In order to join in to the Art League's online events, participants will need the Zoom app downloaded to a computer with a working camera and connected to the internet, or a smart phone or tablet with the Zoom app. The camera and audio on the device must be working properly.

The Art League of Ocean City is a non-profit organization dedicated to bringing the visual arts to the community through education, exhibits, scholarship, programs and community art projects.
