

CONTACT:

Rina Thaler

Art League of Ocean City

Ocean City Center for the Arts

410-524-9433

rthaler@artleagueofoceancity.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TICKETS NOW ON SALE FOR “ARTRAGEOUS: AN INTERACTIVE ART & MUSIC EXPERIENCE,”
BENEFITING THE ART LEAGUE AND WORCESTER COUNTY
STUDENTS

OCEAN CITY, MD — Oct. 12, 2022 — On Sunday, Oct. 23 at 6 p.m., the Art League of Ocean City will bring a high-energy national touring stage show to Ocean City at the Performing Arts Center. Artrageous is an interactive art and music experience for all ages, combining the visual and performing arts with audience participation.

Tickets range from $25-$35, and are available at ArtLeagueofOceanCity.org, at the Ocean City Center for the Arts at 502 94th St., and also at the Ocean City Convention Center box office. Sales benefit the programs of the Art League of Ocean City and also allow for free tickets for Worcester County teachers on Sunday, and a free performance on Monday, Oct. 24 for 1,200 Worcester County students.

The Humphreys Foundation and the Ocean City/Berlin Optimist Club — along with support from T.E.A.M. Productions, the Town of Ocean City, and private donations — are funding the special free Monday show that the performers will gear towards the school children. Worcester County teachers have lesson plans they can use to prepare the students ahead of time for what they will see and how they will participate.

Artrageous previously performed in Ocean City and for the Worcester County schools in 2018 to a sold out crowd on Sunday night and a full house on Monday, and is performing an all-new show in 2022.

“This is the type of opportunity that can change kids’ lives,” Rina Thaler, executive director of the Art League, said. “When children are exposed to the arts at an early age, it opens up possibilities they may not have considered in their lives and gives them an outlet of self-expression.”

Artrageous is a troupe of traveling actors and musicians from Vancouver, Canada who banded together in the 1980s to perform and see the world. Starting with children’s puppetry theatre and rising from a fire that destroyed their theater, the troupe has performed for the likes of Sir Richard Branson, Steve Forbes, and General Colin Powell, and in venues and events all over the world. A preview of the show is available at www.artrageousexperience.com.

As people who live and breathe the arts, creativity, community, and inspiration, the performers share their passion with the world in a show that focuses on art, music, theater, singing, dancing, and audience interaction, all on one stage. Audience members will witness the creativity of an artist creating a masterpiece before their eyes in moments. Combined with captivating vocals, intricate choreography, and exciting music, Artrageous takes their audiences on a visual journey to a gallery of finished paintings, culminating in the performers inviting the audience to come on stage and join in the artmaking.

The Ocean City Center for the Arts at 502 94th Street is the home of the Art League of Ocean City, a nonprofit organization dedicated to bringing the visual arts to the community through education, exhibits, scholarship, programs and community art projects. More information is available at 410-524-9433 or artleagueofoceancity.org.

###

Elaine Bean
Art League of Ocean City
Publicity & Marketing Director
elaine@artleagueofoceancity.org
cell 443-944-3398