LAST DAYS TO ENTER, VOTE, AND WIN

OCEAN CITY, MD — Jun 8, 2026 — The Art League of Ocean City is notifying the public that time is running out to join their Global Travel Photo Contest fundraiser. With only a few days left to enter or vote, participants still have a chance to win cash prizes totaling $1,000. Photographers and photography enthusiasts from near and far are invited to participate before the June 22 deadline. Now is the perfect time to showcase your favorite travel images and encourage friends, family, and fans to vote.

The Global Photo Travel Photo Contest is sponsored by the White Marlin Open (whitemarlinopen.com), the world's largest billfish tournament, the contest celebrates the unforgettable moments, breathtaking landscapes, vivid cultures, and meaningful connections discovered through travel. Whether your image was captured on a distant adventure or during a memorable journey close to home, all photographs that tell compelling stories of people, places, and nature are welcome.

For those who have already submitted their entries, the competition is heating up! The Art League is urging all to keep sharing their work and inviting all their connections to cast their votes. To date, the Art League has successfully raised $2,499 of its $5,000 fundraising goal. It is important to remember that every entry fee and every dollar spent on voting directly supports The Art League of Ocean City's mission. Regardless of the contest outcome, these contributions are vital in helping the Art League sustain its diverse range of educational programs and community initiatives. Contributions ensure that ALOC's gallery doors are open to the public with free admission all year round, fostering a spirited and accessible arts culture in the Delmarva Region.
